

The February 2010 meeting of the Johnstown Town Board was called to order at 6:00 p.m. by Chairman Logterman. The meeting was posted in 4 locations in the town and posted on the town's web site. Present: Dennis Logterman, Carmen Corwith, Robert Mawhinney, Patsy Weber and Mary Mawhinney. Absent: none.

The agenda was reviewed and approved on a Mawhinney/Corwith motion. The clerk's report was read and approved on a Mawhinney/Corwith motion. The treasurer's report was read and approved on a Corwith/Mawhinney motion. A Mawhinney/Corwith motion to transfer fund and pay the bills, carried. There were no unusual bills.

Citizen's Input Rick Richards was present to introduce himself. He is running for State Senate for our district he wants to decrease spending and have more of a common sense approach to government. Jeff Sartell asked what is going on with the salvage yard and why is it such a mess around the buildings he thinks it makes our community look bad. Logterman will contact 3-D auto salvage. He also asked if the town had any signs or barricades purchased, the board is always looking for them we do have some. Richard Stanley stated that the snowplowing on 6 Corners Road could be improved. Steve Wickingson stated that he thought they had done a fine job of plowing.

Zoning officer report- he has nothing to report at this time. Steve Wickingson attended the Working lands program put on by the Rock Co Planning Department. There will be numerous changes to the farmland preservation plan and the town needs to be updated on the changes as a lot of them will be done by the town. The clerk will contact the Planning Department and get some dates for them to come out.

Road Work- The board will need to start planning for the road work for 2010. Enbridge had sent out a letter the town attorney said we should not sign until get some clarification. The attorney will be in contact. The clerk requested that the town draft a letter to the Co Highway Department concerning Co M. Maurice Peterson asked about the town posting roads for the spring, this will be on the March agenda.

The request from Emergency Management to sign the agreement was discussed, a Mawhinney/Corwith motion to table until March 15 carried.

There has been nothing new on the contract with the Humane Society. The old assessor the town attorney is filing forms.

Community Center- Weber stated that he has varnished the stage and fixed the timer on the front light. The clerk asked the board to consider updating the hall the bathrooms and the carpet in the big room this will be discussed at a later date.

The next meeting date will be March 15, 2010 at 6:00 p.m. on a Mawhinney/Corwith motion.

A Corwith/Mawhinney motion to adjourn carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:00 p.m.

Mary Mawhinney, Clerk